HOUSTON LIVESTOCK SHOW AND RODEO™

JUNIOR MARKET AUCTIONS IMPORTANT DONOR DISCLOSURES

DONOR NOTIFICATIONS:

- Your purchase is a non-refundable donation to the Show. If you spend less at auction than your purchase commitment amount, the difference becomes a donation to the Show. If you do not purchase at auction, your full purchase commitment becomes a donation to the Show. Resell credits for declined meat packages cannot be selected for Junior Market Auctions.
- Meat Packages are only high quality, commercially sourced meat.
- Auction donors will re-select their meat package benefit or gift card on auction day or via email by the end of May. Please review the Auction Benefit Breakdown List in the Auction Catalog for clarification on allotted auction day packages.
- Additional fees for meat upgrades cannot be used towards auction day purchases.
- Meat packages not picked up during the allotted time period will be considered a donation to the Show and purchase commitments will not be refunded. The Show will notify purchasers of pick-up dates.
- Meat packages will not be released if you have not paid for your auction purchases in full. Payment will not be accepted at the meat pick up location.
- On auction day, donors will be offered additional benefits. The fair market value of any additional benefits received at auction will be split among all donors on the lot.
- The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is 501(c)(3) charitable organization. The amount of the donation that may be deductible for federal tax purposes is the excess value donated over the value of goods or services received. Consult with your tax professional for more information.
- Payments for auction purchases and purchase commitments from foundations or charities will be reviewed individually and all benefit acceptances will be determined by individual foundation policies. Please review your foundation policy before accepting any donor benefits.
- This purchase commitment form serves as acknowledgment of your transaction and provides the fair market value of goods and services received.
